

Interviews for Scholarships/Camps/Trips

Interviews for the scholarship/camps/trips listed below will be held in the Thomas Building, room 101, immediately following the morning awards ceremony.

Trips/Camps
You may interview for only 1 trip or camp.
Trip/Camp	Information	Current Level	PJAS Requirements
National Youth Science Camp in West Virginia July 1 – July 25	4 weeks, expenses paid, 2 delegates and 2 alternates, attend during Summer 2009	12 th grade	Must receive a first place award at the 2009 State Meeting. Bring your award certificate to the interview.
For additional information: www.sciencecamp.org
American Association for the Advancement of Science National Convention	Expenses paid, student is responsible for travel to designated airport within PA, 3 delegates and 2 alternates	11 th grade	Must receive a first place award at the 2009 State Meeting. Bring your award certificate to the interview.
For additional information: www.aaas.org/meetings
Wallops Island Marine Science Award	1 week, expenses paid, student is responsible for travel, 1 delegate and 1 alternate	10 th or 11 th grade	Must receive a first place award at the 2009 State Meeting. Bring your award certificate. Project must be in BC, BIO, BOT, ECO, MIC, or ZOO
For additional information: www.msconsortium.org Click on precollege

Penn State University Scholarships
Maximum of 2 interviews allowed.
Award	Information	PJAS Requirements
PSU College of Agriculture Scholarships	Must attend PSU Main Campus with a major in the College of Agricultural Sciences	Must receive a first or second place award at the 2009 State Meeting. Bring your award certificate to the interview. Must be in 11 th grade.
PSU College of Earth and Mineral Sciences Scholarships	Must attend PSU Main Campus with a major in the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences
PSU College of Engineering Scholarships	Must attend PSU Main Campus with a major in the College of Engineering
PSU Eberly College of Science Scholarships	Must attend PSU Main Campus with a major in the Eberly College of Science	